

Electronic library policies

Instructing users in the use of information resources and providing information and reference to users .1
.online or via e-mail

Guiding the users and help retrieve the requested information .2

Updating the electronic library website and creating educational content .3

Monitoring the library software in all faculties of the university .4

Developing policies and regulations .5

Preparing the electronic material for the library and providing access to resources and scientific information .6
for faculty members, students, and researchers

Objectives and mission

The electronic library aims to provide electronic resources and high volume of information in shortest time
.possible to promote the quality of education and research

The mission of electronic library

The mission is to enhance education and research in the university and support the efforts of the university in promoting the academic rank of all faculty members and finally the research rank of the university. To achieve this objective, it is necessary to provide resources and information needed by the university and hold .workshops to extend the necessary resources available